OUR CHOCOLATE IS DIFFERENT

Xoco's chocolate is unlike any other in the city, because we're the only restaurant in Chicago with its own bean-to-cup chocolate program. Huge sacks of cacao beans arrive at our door from Tabasco.

We roast them, winnow them (that is, shake off the husks) and grind them under a heavy granite wheel. The beans have now been transformed into a smooth paste, which we form into large chocolate bars and allow to cool. When you order a cup to drink, we mix the chocolate with steamy milk (or water) and organic sugar. The rest is up to you.
