Application

Hello! Thanks for your interest in applying for a Frontera Farmer Foundation grant. Before proceeding, please review the eligibility guidelines below. In this form you'll be asked some information about your farm and your proposed project, as well as to upload specific financial documents, including Profit & Loss statements and the Schedule F tax form. The deadline to complete the application is 11 p.m. Thursday, March 14th.

* Eligibility Guidelines • Read Carefully ****

Nonprofit groups and farms with nonprofit parent organizations are discouraged from applying.

Frontera Farmer Foundation will award grants for capital improvements of up to $15,000 to small and mid-size farmers in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin that sell their food products to customers in the Chicago area at farmers markets and otherwise. Farmers must have been in business for at least three years and must demonstrate how the grant will improve both their farm's viability and the availability of locally grown food products in the Chicago area. Farms that have been awarded grants will be eligible every other year.

Grant applicants will be judged on the basis of demonstrated need, long-term dedication to sustainable farming, creative and business acumen, and commitment to sustainability. Applicants will also be judged on their past history with the foundation. Additional grants will be approved only after a farm has demonstrated the initial grant had a measurable impact on the farm's infrastructure and ability to provide locally grown food to the Chicago area.

Yes, we accept mailed copies of the application. For that, you'll have to print out the application, fill it out and include all requested documents and mail it to: Frontera Farmer Foundation, 445 N. Clark St. Chicago, IL 60654
